DEDICATION

THIS BOOK is dedicated by the Staff of the 1954 CHAIN AND ANCHORS to Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gates, Sr., on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary. They hold a large place in our hearts and, with their permission, we hereby invite ourselves back to Fairfax for the celebration of their Diamond Jubilee in 1963.

FOREWORD

SOME of you have wondered about the significance of our title, CHAIN AND ANCHORS. The anchors represent the home and school and the chain which joins them symbolizes the strong bond between these two dominating factors in our lives. For many years a feature of our commencement program has been the adding of links to our "chain of years," with the rededication of the anchors, home and school. It is the hope of your CHAIN AND ANCHORS Staff that the record in this book may help to keep alive our days at Fairfax Hall.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

of the College Senior Class

WE, THE College Senior Class, being of sound minds and bodies do hereby wish to make known to the world our last wishes as of this fifth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-four:

We bequeath to Miss Lampton, our kind and patient housemother and sponsor, each and every room in the Dorm, spotless and shining by 8:00 each morning.

I, Mary Jane Parlin, do hereby will and bequeath my "cattle and bottles with metal caps," to any underclassman who claims she is a native New Yorker and can stand the teasing of these rebels as I have, with forced patience, managed to do.

I, Martha Terranella, being of unsound mind at the time, do will and bequeath to all underclassmen, my tremendous ability to "doe-doe." Also, I will to anyone who is brave enough, the job of cutting hair and taking the consequences afterwards as I did.

I, June Ehrhardt, being of strong body and uncertain mind, will and bequeath to Patricia Dean my laugh. Let it ring long and loud throughout the halls of Senior Dorm.

I, Martha Miles, not being of sound mind, do leave my buzzard wings to Timmie Wallace with the assurance that they will never fail as a good means of transportation for escaping English class during difficult situations. I also leave that cozy little room, better known as the library, to those who are the studious type—or at least appear to be.

I, Wissie Mumma, having all brain and no brawn, do will and bequeath my intelligence to Miss Gandy, my straight legs and big feet to Annie Gil and, last but not least, another Wissie to the Charles Addams house.

I, Gleta Bell, being of studious mind, do hereby will and bequeath my straight hair and disfigured hands to Barbara Baldwin, in hopes that she will use them to good advantage.

I, Mary Ann Yount, with heavy heart and tearful eye, do hereby will and bequeath all the fine times I have had at Fairfax to the underclassmen, especially Lloyd Rollins, who I know will make every minute full of fun and laughter.

I, Ann McNew, being of questionable mind and frail body, do hereby bequeath my ability to live dangerously and ride motorcycles to Barbara Baldwin in hopes that she will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Alice Chandler, do hereby will and bequeath my love of bridge to Anne Gilman in hopes that she will learn to play better than I can.

I, Ann Morrison, being of tall body and burned-out mind, leave my Phi Theta Kappa pin to Sally McCraw with orders to keep it shining.

I, Vergie Wine, do hereby will and bequeath my car to anyone who can make it run without its having to be towed in.

I, Georgia Hawley, being of unsound mind and body, do hereby leave my laundry list and laundry bill to anyone who thinks she can match it; and my 6:00 A.M. study period to anyone who thinks she can get something accomplished in it.

I, Ruth Chandler, being of shaken mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to Pam Pattie, the exclusive use of my chauffeur and car in hopes that they may help her in getting to school on time next year.

I, Sonia Castillo, do hereby will and bequeath my dancing ability to Ethel Garth in hopes that she will use it to good advantage next year.

I, Patsy Dodd, do hereby will and bequeath my secretarial proficiency to anyone who thinks she can do a better job with it than I have done.

I, Athena Kostul, being of sound mind and small body, do hereby will and bequeath my daily "mail on the ironing-board" to the most deserving mail-less junior in Senior Dorm.

I, Mary Welch, do leave . . .!!!

College Senior Class

June 5, 1964

Dear Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gates, Sr.:

Enclosed is a copy of the minutes of the first reunion of the College Senior Class of 1954. We thought you might be interested in the whereabouts and fates of these girls after ten long years.

The meeting was called to order by Wissie Mumma, who officiated and introduced our honored guest of the evening, Miss Shirley Lampton. Miss Lampton had journeyed from Fairfax to be with us for the occasion.

The greater part of the meeting was devoted to bringing up to date the activities of each of the members. In the informal discussion that followed, it was revealed that our president, Wissie Mumma, is being praised by the girls of America for her new "Shope" curlers; a tremendous boon to the hair-curling industry. Presently drawing much acclaim as the famed dancer of "Swan Lake" sponsored by the Ballet Russé is none other than Sonia Castillo. Gleta Bell has just returned from another voyage to England, where she purchased some new cashmere sweaters to replenish her dwindling supply. The latest winner of the coveted Nobel Prize is Ruth Chandler for the widely publicized Chandler's "Translation of Homer and Virgil." Our little Georgia Hawley has just been promoted to president of the "Lost and Found" department of the Dallas Laundry. June Ehrhardt has reached her goal at last and has been given a permanent place as Laugh Promoter in Bob Hope's audience. Mary Ann Yount is joyous about her new record in sales of Air-Wick bottles and vaporizers. Congratulations are in order this evening for Mary Welch who just received her Master's degree from Cambridge University, and has been recognized for her great satirical writings in blank verse. Martha Terranella is making headlines these days due to the recent discovery of a gusher in her back yard. Oil? No, spicy, splurty, Spaghetti Sauce! Vergie Wine is proud to announce that she has an important key position in a special Auto Club, whose motto is, "You supply it, we'll wreck it!" The talk of the town these days is the revolution in the stamp industry made possible by Athena Kostul, who invented a stamp complete with indelible inscriptions. After the death of Einstein, it was no surprise to any of us that Ann Morrison should be elected to succeed him and carry on where he left off.

Among those unable to be present tonight are Alice Chandler who is this evening engaged in a reading of "John Brown's Body" at Duke University. Mary Jane Parlin is absent due to the fact that she is taking notes at the "You Describe It, We'll Write It" convention in New Jersey. Mickey McNew sent a telegram expressing her great disappointment at not being with us tonight but she is coaching Marlon Brando in his new smash hit, "Motorcycle Called Undesired." Patsy Dodd just telephoned us from the White House and informed us that she would be here shortly, but must finish some last-minute dictation for the President.

The highlight of the evening was the favors given each of the members present, by Martha Miles. They were baby buzzards from her Buzzard Farm in North Carolina.

Thus the first reunion of the Class of '54 was brought to a close.

Those who attended had a marvelous time and are anxiously looking forward to another such memorable evening in the near future. We would be greatly pleased if you would be our guests at the next reunion.

Sincerely yours,
Mary Jane Parlin,
Secretary.

Laurel Chain Song

Winding slowly o'er the campus
As we bear our laurel chain
O'er the dear old Fairfax campus
As we pledge our love again.

Refrain

Dear old Fairfax, dear old Fairfax,
How our hearts beat high with pride!
Ever shall we stand together,
Fairfax daughters side by side.

'Tis a symbol of our faith,
This laurel chain we bear,
And the trust we have in Fairfax—
Oh, our hearts will e'er be here!

(3)

As the day draws nigh for parting
And we list to another call,
In our hearts will live the echo,
Alma Mater, Fairfax Hall.

(4)

We, the Senior Class of Fairfax,
Pass to you this chain of green
As a token of our love
And the happy days we've seen.

(5)

We accept with joyful hearts
The challenge that you give,
And promise we will keep it;
In our hearts 'twill ever live.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

of the

High School Senior Class

We, the High School Seniors, wish to leave behind a few things we have cherished here at Fairfax Hall. The final wishes of the Senior Class shall now be disclosed as we are all gathered here.

Article I

We wish to bequeath to Mr. and Mrs. Gates, Sr., our best wishes and heartiest congratulations on their Golden Wedding Anniversary, and also our love and appreciation for the wonderful times they have afforded our class.

We wish to bequeath to Miss Strother our sincere thanks for caring for each of us, and we extend invitations to her for a visit to each of us.

Article II

I, Ann Lutes, hereby do will and bequeath my ability to cry in Chemistry class to any budding Einstein; to Rose Klevansky I leave my waistline with fond hopes of saving her from sneaking to Faxette; and to Fairfax I leave three happy years of my life.

I, Carol Robinson, being of tired mind and skinny body, do will and bequeath my devotion to horror comics and race music to any underclassman who is Bohemian enough to appreciate them.

I, Ann Braman, being of no mind and feeble body, do hereby will and bequeath my handy expression, "I haven't been at all well today" to Gini Leach in hopes she will be more successful with it than I have.

I, Barbara Lucky, being of no mind, leave my undying devotion and love for Rock Hudson to Rose Klevansky, and my enthusiasm for receiving mail to Aunt Lottie. I also leave my love for the Bop to Kim Mitchell.

I, B. D. Darden, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go on a diet to Waller; my week-ends in Roanoke and Lexington to Anne Kauffman in hopes that she and Leland will have as much fun as Thad and I did; and my ability to make the Dean's List to Kauffman and Waller who try so hard.

I, Sylvia Watson, with tearful eye and sad heart, will and bequeath to Marlene Peeler my great love for Maryland and my modesty; and to Anne Tinsley my ability to become hysterical in English 4-B.

I, Jane Alexander, being of feeble mind and shapeless body, do hereby will and bequeath to Gail McLanahan my last nickel which I still owe her for a coke; and also, my love for a service man, in hopes that she will be as faithful to her man as I have been to mine!

I, Mary Elizabeth Thomas, do hereby will and bequeath my Hoogar name, "Rhinestone," to anyone who can't afford to buy diamonds.

I, Frankie Bayor, being of weary mind and frail body, do hereby will to Jere-Ann Brewer my ability to grow fingernails in hopes that someday she may grow some; and to Carlotta McKinney my love for Culver.

I, Connie Northridge, being of weak mind and slender body, do leave my willpower to diet to Sharon Boufford in hopes that she may lose as much weight as I did; and to the unfortunate mail-less girls in the smoker, any extra letters that might arrive, courtesy of Stan in Nevada.

I, Nancy Buckley, being of rebel mind and no body, do hereby bequeath to Mrs. Maupin and Mr. Wheeler my hot water bottle to use, as they try in vain to heat our refrigerator; and to Margie Stewart my fifteen rolls and doughnuts, in hopes that she'll enjoy those Episcopal breakfasts as much as I did.

I, Corky Wallace, being of fiendish mind and lazy body, do will and bequeath my love for skunk-stripped hair, my ability to oversleep, and my contagious laugh to anyone who thinks she can get away with it or put up with it.

I, Nicki Bourne, of reasonably sane mind and ever-powerful lungs, do leave my grave-stirring scream to Gini Leach; to Taffy my talent for becoming a "chronic offender" after light bell; and to Anne Kauffman my connections at U. Va.

I, Jean Poole, leavy my dainty walk and my petite figure to Susan Riley in hopes that because of it she won't let people walk on her.

I, Boop Beard, being of horsey body and no mind, do hereby will and bequeath my long hair to Barbara Carney; and Cotton to Nicki Nixon; and my love for horses and the stable I leave to the Riding Department.

I, Armantine Leggett, being of nerves, nerves, and more nerves, do hereby will to Anne Tinsley my "slow" walk in hopes that she will get places as quickly as I have.

I, Caroline Weppler, being of no mind at all, do give to all those coming from far-off lands such as Ohio the ability to stay on campus on week-ends and enjoy them as I have. I also give Jackie "Fla." Douglas my seat in Spanish II and hope that she will do much better than I did.

I, Barbara Viano, do hereby will and bequeath to Vera Hunt my "Syndicate" name, "Greasy, the Mouse"; and to Faye McFarland my round-trip ticket to Tampa, Florida.

I, Anita Kirkpatrick, being of shaky nerves and uneasy mind, will and bequeath to Anne Tinsley my special attraction for the Navy; and my clumsiness on the basketball court to any other future basketball players who want to get that sudden "let-down" feeling!!

I, Judy Carnell, not being sure of my state of mind or body, do hereby will and bequeath my great love for Hawaii to "Sister" Gates, in hopes that she will take care of it as well or better than I have.

I, Nancy Nash, do hereby will and bequeath my cousin, Betty Carr, to Miss Willis with a book of instructions, and to some unlucky underclassman my crutches.

I, Judy McClesky, being of sound mind and weak body, do hereby leave my ability to do algebra to Sara Slovis, in hopes that she will make as many A's as I did; and with much fondness, I leave my Hoogar hat to Gloria Wayland, who has no fangs but might develop them.

I, Ellen Duncan, do hereby will and bequeath my cool temperament to Gini Leach in hopes that she won't try to kill the Waynesboro girls like I did; and to Becky Dunlap I leave the song "Bill"; to Vera Hunt I leave my Latin book in hopes that she does much better than I did.

I, Carole Ely, being of confused mind and wretched body, do hereby will and bequeath to Jackie "Fla." Douglas my deficient thyroid gland so she will have no trouble losing weight; and to Anne Tinsley and Jackie "Fla." Douglas I will my share of the signs in Room No. 115.

I, Donna White, do hereby will and bequeath my empty Aquamarine bottles to all Aquamarine lovers; and to Winnie Wisner my advice on Birmingham boys.

I, Chris Goetz, being of unsound mind and shattered heart, do will and bequeath to Becky Dunlap my collection of Bills in hopes that she can keep them straight; and to Allan Johnson I leave my ability to understand the opposite sex.

I, Sherlene Hall, being of exhausted mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to Miss Pennebaker my outstanding attributes in English and to Jane Allio, I leave the other half of my suitcase for future school trips.

I, Karo Carpenter, being of unstable mind and stable body, do cheerfully leave my weakness for bleach to Waller Roberts. I also leave my Hoogar hat and George to Judy Jay.

I, Nancy Hudson, do hereby will and bequeath my Confederate cap and my Kentucky pennant to Becky Dunlap since she is from the good old city of Louisville.

I, Mickey Kaplan, being of some mind and enough body, do hereby will and bequeath to Faye and Kay all the wonderful times I have had at S. M. A., in hopes that they too have fun, and to all future Fairfax girls I leave (sadly) a wonderful school.

I, Sue Kellenberger, being of flustered mind and broken-down body, do hereby will and bequeath to Barbara Thrasher my "air-sick pills" and other safety precautions in hopes that she will continue to endure the upper stratosphere better than I did; and to Barbara Carney, I leave my riding ability in hopes that she never puts her foot in the wrong stirrup.

I, Barbara Wooster, do hereby will my love for the University of Virginia and those long-awaited week-ends to Mollie Peebles in hopes that she will enjoy it all as I have.

I, Katherine Pittman, in ragged body and practically no mind at all, do hereby bequeath to Jackie "Fla." Douglas my ability to always be at least fifteen minutes late for everything; and to Jessie Mundo my lower bunk on the train to Louisiana.

I, Ann Oesau, being of feeble mind and no body, do hereby will and bequeath my ballet dancing to Margie Stewart in hopes that Wyatt will like it; to Waller Roberts, I leave my ability to stay out of trouble; and stock in the coke machine to "Ruby" who likes them almost as much as I do.

I, Barbara Pilcher, with heavy heart and tearful eye, do hereby will and bequeath my motto, "Never trust a man," to Anne Tinsley in hopes that she will take my advice and not wait to learn first-hand.

I, Joanie Pancoast, leave my love for F. M. S. cadets to Allan Johnson; and to my roommate, Margie Stewart, I leave my Texas flag and hope that she will uphold the standards of the Lone Star State.

I, Sidney Saunders, being almost insane and blind, do will my argyle socks to any underclassman who can knit and will have the socks.

I, Nancy McMurdy, being of weak mind and sentimental heart, do hereby will and bequeath my fabulous times at F. M. S. to Allan Johnson; to Barbara Schoeppl I lend Bobby until Thanksgiving 1954 when I will return, knowing she has taken good care of him for me; and to all the unfortunate underclassmen who are still trying, I leave my natural platinum hair.

I, Gale Perry, being cold of body and frigid of mind, do sadly leave my room to some poor unsuspecting rebel. I also leave to Marlene Peeler my "put-on" southern accent and our similar taste in cadets.

I, Libby Booth, being of some mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my scissors and the deed to Booth's Beauty Salon to Sue McGee, and my love for dramatics to Judy Jay.

I, Sheila McCulloch, being reasonably sure of mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my pug nose to Gini Leach, in hopes that she will uphold the nickname of "No Nose."

I, Jan Patterson, of feeble mind and body, do will to Carlotta McKinney my use of the telephone for calls to Culver cadets, and ask her to keep her eye on one special one!

I, Julie Cohen, do will and bequeath to Mollie Peebles my 95 in Chemistry, and I hope that Miss Gambrill can stand the strain.

This, the Last Will and Testament of the High School Senior Class of 1954, is signed and sealed on this, the sixth day of June.

The High School Senior Class Prophecy

Hello, Mr. and Mrs. America and all the ships at sea: This is your reporter, Walter Finchell, giving you the inside dope on inside U. S. A. Let's go to press!

The big news tonight comes from White Sands, Mexico, where Dr. Ann Lutes, B.S., M.A., Ph.D., has discovered a new non-smear lipstick with a uranium base. It's dynamite!

Across the nation in Washington, Connie Northridge, the first woman Secretary of State, has opened negotiations with Russia over possession of Berlin. It is expected that Miss Northridge with her gift for gab will get not only Berlin but also Moscow! Also in the nation's capital today is a committee of native southerners headed by Donna White, the Democratic Senior Senator from Alabama. This group is campaigning for peace, on the grounds that wars create a dip in the marriage statistics.

In Detroit, Chris Goetz, America's most married heiress, has just captured her tenth husband . . . this one is named Bill, like all the rest but his last name is Rockefeller.

Nobel Prizes were presented yesterday and Ann G. Oesau walked off with the music award for the eighth consecutive time for her splendid work with the Queen Series. Other recipients were Carol Robinson, the Literature Prize for her sparkling novel "From Here to Obscurity," and Nicki Bourne, the Science Award for her amazing rat trap which is guaranteed to stop any rodent, regardless of size.

Opening on Broadway this week is "Fairfax Confidential" by Barbara Viano . . . this is the inside story of the inside of a prep school . . . entertaining as well as a gripping novel . . . It stars the new Helen Hayes, Elizabeth Booth, who gives a fine performance as the Social Dean. Don't miss it!!! Also on the Great White Way, see the opening of the new movie, "Big Orange Drink," with the cinema-starlet, Sheila McCulloch as Alan Ladd's sultry gun moll. Sheila shows promise . . . We predict an Oscar. Other entertainment 'round the city . . . be sure to see the Women's Championship Wrestling Match tonight on either TV or at the Garden . . . It'll be Crusher Corky Wallace and Bruiser Bibba Thomas . . . a fight to the finish . . . the smart money is on the Crusher but Bruiser Thomas, as a contender for the crown, shows great promise. Caroline Weppler, known to her many fans as "Cool Woman" opens tonight at The Latin Quarter with her new band. "Cool Woman" is the hottest thing on drums since Gene Krupa and we hear she's raking in a tidy sum of $4,000 per night at The Quarter.

In the fashion world, Barbara Wooster has been acclaimed "Model of the Year" by the National Fashion Congress. She'll be going to Paris for the spring showings and she'll have to stay there if she doesn't pay her income tax. Joan Pancoast also received high honors at the Congress for her initiation of a new trend in dress—a backless black sheath trimmed in Confederate flags that will give Dior a run for his money.

The great state of Texas became even greater yesterday when Barbara Lucky, Houston oil heiress, purchased Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and Mexico and added them to Texas territory. Rumor has it that the Lone Star State is about to break away from the Union and declare itself independent. Opinion has it that Miss Lucky will be President of the new country if the plot goes through.

Elsewhere in the forty-eight, Carolyn Carpenter, Governor of Kentucky, has just declared her state above the Mason-Dixon line . . . "Kaintuck" will be considered "Yankee Territory" from now on.

New capitalists around the nation are Sylvia Watson, who has just opened a streamlined bus system from West Virginia to Chestertown, Maryland. (My spies tell me there is an ulterior motive in this operation); and Armantine Leggett, who has her own private air line from Waynesboro, Va. to South Boston, Va. She's flying the planes herself . . .

Americans abroad . . . Julie Cohen, U. S. explorer, has just discovered a new diamond mine in Togoland, West Africa . . . a rich find. Ellen Duncan, American automobile magnate has just designed a new Italian sports car rumored to hit 210 per . . . Barbara Darden, the only woman toreador in Spain, killed her one hundredth bull in Madrid today to become the World's Number One Toreador . . . Anita Kirkpatrick, Jane Alexander, and Sue Kellenberger have opened a new night club in gay Paree. The new outfit is an elaborate affair in Montmartre modeled after the old Moulin Rouge . . . Stars of the floor show are American comedienne, Katherine Pittman, and Can-Can dancer Mickey Kaplan. Jean Poole, top U. S. athlete, has swum back and forth across the English Channel six times without touching land. . . Bulletins have it that Jean is tiring but she has broken all previous records. . .

Back in the states again. . . Barbara Pilcher has won the coveted General Mills Award for being the nation's best cook. . . Sporting news today features horses—Boop Beard, up on Native Dancer, has captured racing's Triple Crown for the fourth consecutive time. . . Her winnings run into twelve figures. . . When asked if they can do it again next year, Native Dancer's trainer and owner, Carole Ely says, "We'll do'er, we'll do'er the first chanct we git!" . . . Automobile speedsters have declared Nancy Hudson all-time auto champ . . . she's the first gal to ever win this honor. . .

The Long Arm of the Law reached out today and clamped down on Judy Carnell, Miami racketeer. . . Carnell had her finger in many pies but it is thought that she is the brains behind Murder Incorporated. One of her torpedoes, Judy McClesky, who handles a mean .45, was also arrested for disturbing the peace when she began to argue with a cop about the virtues of Sigmi Chi. . . Also in Florida today, Nanci McMurdy was appointed to the Board of Directors of Miami University . . . she's Vice-President in Charge of Underwater Basketweaving . . . a strategic political position. . . In Fort Lauderdale, foremost Olympic speedster, Jan Patterson, has begun training for next year's games. . . She'll be representing the U. S. in all the running events.

Back to Washington. . . Gale Perry has just been appointed Secretary of the Treasury on her economy record. . . Nancy Buckley, Tennessee Representative in the House, has been filibustering for the past two months for an extension of funds to the House Committee for States' Rights. . . So far, not much has been accomplished. . .

Wall Street financier, Anne Braman, has purchased controlling interest in U. S. Steel with capital gained from coaching basketball in Greenland. . . Another big outfit, Standard Oil, formerly owned by John D. Rockefeller, has been purchased at an undisclosed sum by Sherlene Hall and Frankie Bayor. . .

A new capitalist around the U. S. is Nancy Nash who just initiated an accident insurance plan covering hockey and basketball players. . . She ought to make a fortune out of it.

In the high, unattainable Tibetan mountains Sidney Saunders, nurse and explorer, toils away. . . Miss Saunders has devoted her whole life to the mission of bringing health and comic books to the backwoods citizens who had never before seen a white woman. . . We salute you, Sidney, as an outstanding nurse and an outstanding American.

Tune in again next week when your reporter brings you the inside dope on inside America. . . Now we sign off with best wishes and hopes for happiness in the future.

Tampa, Florida

A good place to call "Hometown"

A good place to build a future

Tampa is long on

- Sunshine
- Recreation
- Climate

And Tampa scores in the plenty column, also, with Beautiful homes • Spacious boulevards • Gracious living

Here at your school you are building an education. But in the years ahead you will be building your future. Thousands have been turning to Florida, many of these to the Tampa area. Population of this West Coast Florida business and industrial community was only 124,641 in 1950. Today's official estimates give the city a population count of more than 220,000. And your future can grow rapidly, too, in Tampa.
